FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Plaintiff Lawrencia Griffin, who is appearing pro se, was twice ordered to participate in a Rule 26(f) conference and the preparation of a joint status report and proposed scheduling plan, and to attend a show cause hearing on May 14, 2010. Because plaintiff has not complied with any of these orders, her pleadings should be stricken and her claims dismissed with prejudice.

I.

On December 29, 2009, plaintiff sued defendant in federal district court for breach of contract, fraud, and fraudulent inducement in connection with a $361,950 loan. After defendant filed an answer, the court ordered the parties to hold a Rule 26(f) conference by March 11, 2010, and to submit a joint status report and proposed scheduling plan by March 25, 2010. The order provides that anyone who fails to participate in the conference or who fails to sign the joint status report will be subject to sanctions. See Order, 2/25/10 at 1, ¶ 1 & 3, ¶ 2. When the parties failed to submit a joint status report, the court issued an order requiring plaintiff and defendant to show cause why sanctions should not be imposed for violating the order. See Order, 4/12/10. Both parties filed written responses to the show cause order. Rather than impose sanctions at that time, the court ordered the parties to hold a Rule 26(f) conference by April 26, 2010, and submit a joint status report and proposed scheduling plan by April 30, 2010. Once again, the parties were warned that "[t]he failure to comply with this order may result in the imposition of additional sanctions, including an order striking pleadings and dismissing this action or entering a default judgment, as appropriate." Order, 4/20/10 at 1-2, citing FED. R. CIV. P. 16(f)(1). On April 30, 2010, defendant notified the court that plaintiff had not returned phone calls or acknowledged correspondence asking her to participate in a Rule 26(f) conference. The court then scheduled a show cause hearing for May 14, 2010 at 9:00 a.m. Plaintiff was ordered "to attend this hearing in person, then and there to show cause why she should not be sanctioned for failing to participate in a Rule 26(f) conference and the preparation of a joint status report and proposed scheduling plan." See Order, 5/3/10 at 2. As before, plaintiff was warned that sanctions may be imposed if she failed to attend the show cause hearing, "including striking her complaint and dismissing this action with or without prejudice." Id., citing FED. R. CIV. P. 16(f)(1). Although plaintiff was duly notified of the show cause hearing, she failed to appear and did not communicate with the court or opposing counsel regarding her absence.

II.

Rule 16(f) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides, in pertinent part:

On motion or on its own, the court may issue any just orders, including those authorized by Rule 37(b)(2)(A)(ii)-(vii), if a party or its attorney:

(A) fails to appear at a scheduling or other pretrial conference;

* * * *

(C) fails to obey a scheduling or other pretrial order.

FED. R. CIV. P. 16(f)(1). Among the sanctions contemplated by this rule are "striking pleadings in whole or in part" and "dismissing the action or proceeding in whole or in part." FED. R. CIV. P. 37(b)(2)(A)(iii) & (v). In addition, Rule 41(b) authorizes dismissal of a civil action for failure to comply with a court order. FED. R. CIV. P. 41(b); see also Larson v. Scott, 157 F.3d 1030, 1031 (5th Cir. 1998). This authority "flows from the court's inherent power to control its docket and prevent undue delays in the disposition of pending cases." Boudwin v. Graystone Insurance Co., 756 F.2d 399, 401 (5th Cir. 1985), citing Link v. Wabash Railroad Co., 370 U.S. 626, 82 S.Ct. 1386, 8 L.Ed.2d 734 (1962). Such a dismissal may be with or without prejudice. See Long v. Simmons, 77 F.3d 878, 879-80 (5th Cir. 1996). A dismissal with prejudice is appropriate only if the failure to comply with the court order was the result of purposeful delay or contumacious conduct and the imposition of lesser sanctions would be futile. Id.; see also Berry v. CIGNA/RSI-CIGNA, 975 F.2d 1188, 1191 (5th Cir. 1992).

The record in this case documents a clear history of delay and contumacious conduct by plaintiff. Not only did plaintiff fail to participate in a Rule 26(f) conference and the preparation of a joint status report and proposed scheduling plan, but she did not appear at a show cause hearing on May 14, 2010. Plaintiff was warned on three different occasions that her failure to comply with court orders may result in the imposition of sanctions. See Orders, 2/25/10, 4/20/10, 5/3/10. Two of those warnings specifically advise that such sanctions may include an order striking pleadings and dismissing this action. See Orders, 4/20/10, 5/3/10. Under these circumstances, extreme sanctions are warranted. See, e.g. Price v. McGlathery, 792 F.2d 472, 474 (5th Cir. 1986) (dismissal warranted where plaintiff failed to attend pretrial conference after judge warned that he had "one last opportunity" to comply with court's orders); Peoples v. City of Dallas, No. 3-10-CV-0190-O, 2010 WL 1542176 at *2-3 (N.D. Tex. Mar. 25, 2010), rec. adopted, 2010 WL 1542179 (N.D. Tex. Apr.

16, 2010) (complaint stricken and case dismissed with prejudice where pro se plaintiff failed to attend Rule 16 conference and show cause hearing); Sawyer v. Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc., No. 3-09-CV-2303-K, 2010 WL 996768 at *2 (N.D. Tex. Feb. 1, 2010), rec. adopted, 2010 WL 996917 (N.D. Tex. Mar. 17, 2010) (same); Petito v. Brewster, No. 3-08-CV-0006-L, 2008 WL 906065 at *4 (N.D. Tex. Mar. 31, 2008), aff'd, 562 F.3d 761 (Table), 2009 WL 682392 (5th Cir. Mar. 17, 2009) (pleadings stricken and case dismissed where pro se plaintiff failed to appear at two hearings without justification or excuse); Eric D. Fein, P.C. & Assoc. v. Dinli Metal Industrial Co., No. 3-07-CV-0012-K, 2007 WL 1741249 at *2 (N.D. Tex. Jun. 14, 2007) (default judgment entered against defendant who failed to appear at court-ordered status conference and show cause hearing); DirecTV, Inc. v. Mendes, No. 3-03-CV-1102-P, 2004 WL 733199 at *2 (N.D. Tex. Apr. 2, 2004), rec. adopted, 2004 WL 1873039 (N.D. Tex. Aug. 18, 2004) (same); Gonzales v. HT&T Architects, Inc., No. 3-98-CV-0190-BD, 1998 WL 574381 at *2 (N.D. Tex. Aug. 31, 1998) (default judgment entered against defendant for failure to obtain counsel or appear at conference).

The court has considered alternate sanctions. However, lesser sanctions would not serve the interests of justice or advance the disposition of this case on the merits. Where a plaintiff refuses to obey lawful orders without justification or excuse, dismissal is warranted.

RECOMMENDATION

Plaintiff failed to comply with two orders requiring her to participate in a Rule 26(f) conference and the preparation of a joint status report and proposed scheduling plan, and an order requiring her to attend a show cause hearing on May 14, 2010--all without justification or excuse. As a result, her pleadings should be stricken and her claims dismissed with prejudice. See FED. R. Civ. P. 16(f) (1) & 37(b)(2)(A)(iii) & (v).

A copy of this report and recommendation shall be served on all parties in the manner provided by law. Any party who objects to any part of this report and recommendation must file specific written objections within 14 days after being served with a copy. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); FED. R. CIV. P. 72(b). In order to be specific, an objection must identify the specific finding or recommendation to which objection is made, state the basis for the objection, and specify the place in the magistrate judge's report and recommendation where the disputed determination is found. An objection that merely incorporates by reference or refers to the briefing before the magistrate judge is not specific. Failure to file specific written objections will bar the aggrieved party from appealing the factual findings and legal conclusions of the magistrate judge that are accepted or adopted by the district court, except upon grounds of plain error. See Douglass v. United Services Automobile Ass'n, 79 F.3d 1415, 1417 (5th Cir. 1996).
